

“National security” means a state in which the country is free from threats to its independence, sovereignty, territorial integrity, religious institutions, the monarchy public safety, normal life, well-being of the people or that affect national interests or democratic regimes with the King as Head of State including the country's readiness to face various situations arising from all forms of threats

national interest

- 1. The independence, sovereignty and integrity of the jurisdiction
- 2. The stable and sustainable existence of the nation's major institutions
- 3. The stable existence of the nation and its people against all kinds of threats.
- 4. Coexistence in the nation in peace, solidarity, and social stability in the midst of pluralism and dignity and dignity of humanity