

4. To make the southern border provinces safe.
without conditions of violence
5. To develop the capacity of the government and promote the role and strength of all sectors in dealing with disasters all kinds of threats 6. To provide management of the base of natural resources, the environment energy and food are stable, sustainable and balance with the expansion of national development

7. To develop the national preparedness potential in the face of wars and crises, stability and unity and efficiency
8. To strengthen the capability of the army to defend the country. Support non-war missions and can join forces of the military and all sectors in the face of threats
9. To promote a constructive and peaceful environment of living Together with neighboring countries, ASEAN countries, the community the world on the basis of preserving benefits and maintaining national pride