

Vision “Stable within the country It has the potential to mitigate threats across the Thai border. Play a creative role in the region and the global community”, that is, the nation is stable and united. People have stability in life. developed country continually Safe from cross-border threats ready to face the crisis Take a creative and responsible role It is recognized in the region and the world community to safeguard national security and interests.

1) Changes in domestic context

1.1) The stability of the monarchy has a role and continues to be the main institution of Thai society. and from abroad that cause an impact on the institution despite the nature of linking the institution to seeking political benefits as well as making false claims to distort and create misunderstandings which are Undermining the institution
This situation is a sensitive issue.

It leads to conflicts between different groups in society.