

Practical Guidelines for Student Study Abroad Programs

- - Students should submit a draft study tour program to the staff before The travel schedule is at least 2 months.
- because the project must be approved by the Dean and forwarding request for project approval and travel approval to the President, which is used
- Operational time, which, if approved by the Rector before traveling, will not be able to reimburse any expenses

- Operational time, which, if approved by the Rector before traveling, will not be able to reimburse any expenses