

Summary of management

- Administration is important because it helps organizations. Expanding rapidly to catch up with social changes It is an indication of the progress of society by leading the society and the world to progress and is an indicator of the trend of both prosperity and the deterioration of society.

Concepts and theories related to leadership

Today is the era of globalization. This is an era that is changing rapidly in every aspect. Whether it is economic, political, educational and social, especially information technology. which can connect countries in different regions of the world together Make communication as fast as a world without borders Thailand is one of the countries affected by the changes. which need to adapt to change and build capacity for self-reliance and fierce competition today which affects the survival of the organization If any organization can stand up That organization must have executives with knowledge, ability, and vision. in order to lead the organization to achieve the set goals efficiently