

Concepts and theories related to development management leadership.

Meaning of "leader"

Kawee Wongput (2007) defined six meanings of leadership as follows:

1. The leader is a person who has power over the relationship between the person who has influence over the follower.
2. Leaders are those who exercise influence over authority in relationships. which exists to subordinates in various situations to practice and direct by using the process of contacting each other to achieve the set goals
3. Leaders are those who influence their subordinates. in order to cause efforts in operating to achieve common objectives

Concepts and theories related to development management leadership.

- 4. A leader is a person with authority. influence over abilities persuade people to obey their opinions, needs, or orders Leaders have influence over the actions or behavior of others.
- 5. Leaders are those who are responsible for controlling, inspecting, coordinating, adjudicating, ordering. Convince subordinates to do their best.
- 6. Leaders are those who work with others. Is an inducer for others involved to work together to achieve the set objectives voluntarily. Enthusiasm and striving for the best results