

Leadership Development Management Lesson Plan

- 3 - Behavior modification Developing local leadership initiatives Strengthening
- and developing leadership / leadership development videos-Present group report :
- The results of the synthesis of research related to leadership in the assigned topics for 5 groups.

organization management concept แนวคิดการบริหารองค์กร

both public and private organizations Regardless of size, type or location. A good arrangement is required as a starting point for operations. the growth and continued existence of the organization Especially in today's modern organizations which are facing rapidly changing environmental factors. Whether social, economic and technological, the organization must have a modern and efficient management approach. to cope with rapid changes for the achievement of the organization and to be able to compete with external organizations